Looking Around

WITH MARILYNNE

Kit Brady, a senior, came to school Friday, January 22. Maybe it doesn't sound different, but Kit it was. You see, way back last September, Kit fractured his fourth and fifth cervical vertebrae in a trampoline accident. He's been in the hospital ever since. Kit's going to try to graduate with his class and the Hatchet staff wishes him all the luck in the world.

Seniors, if you plan to go to San Jose State, see Miss Knoles about the battery of tests which are required.

Bernard and Roger just came in with the news that it's snowing --- in Canada maybe.

There's been a lot of activity in student government lately, what with eight-grade orientation meetings (which are still being held). You the class of '63 know that your Student Council representatives, with the aid of other S.C. members, planned the BIG assembly.

Not so long ago, the Student Council went to a convention at Willow Glen High. It seems that as far as activities and Student Government goes, good old Washington's tops!

There's a new club forming on campus—a ski club. If you are a ski-fan, and are interested in joining, contact Charles Colburn or Mrs. Strobel.

With all those finals coming up, I think I'll retire to my desk and do a little reviewing, I Mean a lot of reviewing. So this column has to come to a close, I need the time.

Final Tests Slated Next Week Students Buckle Down To Study

Finals, tests for the students of all classes at Washington High will begin next week.

These examinations are designed to cover the material accumulated during the semester. The student will be quizzed to find out how much he has learned. The test will last a full week. This is to spread the finals out instead of having them all in one day.

It's going to be study, study, study and sometimes it may seem as if the print on the paper is swimming around on the page, and the student's eyes are going to fall out. But, after it's all over, the ordeal will benefit the student, the counselor, and the teacher.

Trip Won By FFA Member

The Fremont Chapter of the Future Farmers of America Speech Contest was held January 14. Jim McKiernan, a junior, took top honors against three other class winners.

Jim went on to meet with Al Paulsen of Hayward. There he placed second, missing first place by one point. Al is to be the Alameda County representative.

If Jim continues in Future Farming next year, he will receive a trip to the National F.A.A. Convention in Kansas City for ten days.

Queen of Hearts Ball February 6

The 13th Annual Queen of Hearts Ball is to be held February 6, at the Scottish Rite Temple in Oakland. Dancing will be from 8-12 to the music of Rod McCualey. This is a semi-formal and the biggest dance of the winter season.

The Queen is to be the girl selling the most tickets to the dance. Karallyne Lee is the Candidate from Centerville. This dance is sponsored by the Order of DeMoley.

Tickets are ninety cents per person. Anyone wishing more information should contact the members of Job's Daughters.

HUSKY DATELINES

January 29: A & B Basketball with Lincoln. There February 5: A & B Basketball Ayer. Here February 10: Junior Senior Club February 11: Huskies to whip Colts A & B, Here February 12: Holiday. Lincoln's Birthday.

Husky Days On Two Stations

Members of the Leadership Class plus other WHS students will represent Washington on KPIX Dance Party February 13.

Activity Committee members Rita Valenzuela and Marilynne Walls, assisted by Linda Forsyth contacted Dick Stewart and received an "okay" on a Washington Day.

Donna Silvera, WHS representative to Record Hop, under the guidance of Rita and Marilynne, is organizing a similar, but larger Washington Day on Frank Daren's Record Hop. The date for this is June 2.

Students from Washington can obtain tickets to Record Hop from the Committee members.

Seniors Sell Tickets; Slave Day

Take a boy, take a girl, have both of them be members of the senior class and you have two enemies. Why? Because of the annual Slave Day that the Senior class holds. Dr. Koller seems undecided as from whom he will buy his ticket. Judy Pierson, girls' captain, or Frank Haas, boys' captain, each hope that his respective team will be slave owners rather than slaves. Which it shall be depends on the number of tickets to the senior play sold by the teams.

Girls Sports

On February 27, all the board members will travel to Livermore to attend the Livermore Leadership Conference. Their job is to report on "Officers Responsibility." This is probably to be done in skit form.

Sports for the third quarters include basketball, slim trim, and folk-square dancing. Sign ups for these will be held as usual in the girls gym.

Anyone knowing of any unusual, funny, or anything different happening in your gym classes, please get in touch with Eileen La Fountain or leave a note in Mr. Peterson's box in room 1.

Members Of Student Council Strive To Better Washington

Meeting every Wednesday 7th period under the supervision of Mr. Roberts, Washington High School's Student Council gets together to discuss new and better ways to help improve our school.

A Camera Snap Lands in a Trap

The snap of cameras and the crackle of flash bulbs were heard in the halls of Washington during camera week, which was January 18-22.

Camera week was held to encourage "camera bugs" to get out and snap (pictures that is) for the Washingtonian.

Once you have snapped a picture, place it in the snap traps found in basic classes. You may win an annual if your picture is selected as the best. Many of these pictures will appear in the annual.

Student Council is made up of representatives from the classes. From these reps, four are elected to the Council. Some of the members are Mike Overacker, Student Body president; Linda Taylor, vice president; Rita Valenzeula, Student Body secretary; and Marie Contreras, Treasurer of the student body. The editors of the Hatchet and the Washingtonian, cafeteria bookkeeper, boys' and girls' athletic representatives are among the many other people on it.

Thus far this year the Council has sponsored the get-acquainted dance, set up a mileage system under which anyone going on errands for the school is paid seven cents a mile; within a fifty mile radius, the Student Body pays one half the expense.

They are also attending special sessions held in the township for the 8th graders and their parents to help incoming students get better acquainted with Washington.

Revising the school budget, and working on a new handbook, putting up new athletic records in the hall are among their many other achievements.

The council is setting up a Name the Snack Bar Contest and a Clean Campus contest between Washington and Logan. They are also working on the Major-Minor point system.

Rita Valenzuela is setting up a special Husky awards for five senior boys and five senior girls. The awards will be based on the students' four years of grades and activities. This will be the highest award to be given at Washington. The winners will receive pins at the last Awards Dinner and a Certificate at graduation exercises.

If you have any suggestions you think the council might be interested in, you are urged to submit them.

SUE CROOP

Singing on the radio in 1953 is the most memorable experience of this pert 17-year old gal.

This Alameda-born girl is very busy around WHS these days. A few of her activities include: being in many of the shows and plays, Tragos Comos (Drama Club), singing for the dance band for three years, being a majorette for two years, and being in Job's Daughters.

Any type of Italian or German food rates with her. Also on her list of favorites are red Charlton Heston, all Rhythm and blues and standards, and the movie Ten Commandments.

Her pet peeve is "people who make a mountain out of a mole hill."

Plans after school are indefinite as of now, but to major in drama may be her choice in San Jose State.

Joe Psuik and "anyone in my gym class" are some of the people she can be seen with. This gal of course is Sue Croop.

Going steady is like flying an airplane. It isn't the start that counts; it's whether or not you can keep it up.

One of this issue's cut-ups is a quiet, studious boy whose name is John Beumer.

John, who stands six feet and one-half inch, has brown hair and blue eyes, was voted the most valuable player in our basketball game in Sunnyvale recently. He also won a golf trophy in the Fremont City Championship second flight. This year John is active in tennis and basketball.

On his list of favorites are pizza, spaghetti, steak, "Symphony" by Tommy Dorsey, the color green, Kurt Douglas and the movie "From Here to Eternity."

His most thrilling moment was when he was voted the most valuable player at the Sunnyvale game.

Future plans include going to UCLA to major in dentistry.

John may usually be seen with Jerry Chaire, Ken Fye, and Steve Thomas.

LEON GIBSON

He's seventeen years old, his birthday is July 29, he's 5' 11", has brown hair and blue eyes. When he's not at school or at work, he can usually be found at the bowling alley, under his car, or over at Pat's.

Who is this mysterious senior boy? Leon Gibson. Leon had this to say when asked about his pet peeve, "people who walk down the halls looking one way and walking the other."

The color blue, steak, pizza, hamburgers, and Industrial Arts Club, are tops with Leon. His ideal girl? Well she looks "like Pat," (Perry, that is, a graduate of '59)

Leon's advice to freshmen is "To do what the Seniors tell you." Under the category of "future plans" comes San Jose City College where he will major in architectural drafting or mechanical drafting.

Arch-rival James Logan Colts upset the Washington Huskies 48-40 before a capacity crowd of 1500 on January 19, at Union City.

The Huskies took a quick 3-0 lead and built it to 7-3 in the first period.

Starting the third quarter Rich Winkle, Colt forward hit a set shot to tie the game 20-all. Then Rich's brother, Mac, converted a three point play to give Logan a 20-23 edge, one which they never relinquished.

The Colts enjoyed a nineteen point fourth quarter advantage, while the Huskies could muster only nine points.

The Huskies hit a poor 37% of their free-throw meshing eight of twenty-one.

Rich and Mac Winkle combined for 33 points, Rich getting 18, Mac, 15.

Pup's Trip Ponies Treglown Tanks 13

The Washington High Pup-pies displayed good shooting and ball handling to defeat the James Logan Ponies 38-29, January 19, in the losers' court.

The puppies took a commanding 24-16 lead, a lead never relinquished.

In the fourth quarter the Pup-pies started pulling away with the shooting of Bill Treglown and the ball hawking of John Ochoa and Guin Boggs.

Bill Treglown was top point man for the Pup-pies with 13. Second was Roger Kokores with 10.

Nordvik Sparks League Victory

The Washington Huskies upset the Andrew Hill Falcons 50-41 on January 23 on the loser's hardwood.

Junior Mike Nordvik, a 5'11" forward, starred for the Huskies, getting 14 points and grabbing 12 rebounds.

Nordvik was replacing star forward John Beumer and came through with a tremendous performance both offensively and defensively.

The "Malemutes" led from start to finish but had to stave off a fourth period Hill rally to win.

Hill's Frank Castenada who was the game's high scorer with 15 points was held scoreless in the fourth period by Jack Gleason to give the Huskies a victory. Gleason had 13 points for the locals.

Another Overtime! Huskies Win By 1

Gay Kalino's set shot in overtime gave the Washington Huskies a 42-41 victory over the San Jose Bulldogs last Tuesday afternoon.

The win marks the first time this year, the Huskies have won an overtime game in four ties.

Husky Jack Gleason hit a jump shot to tie the score at 38-all and send the Huskies into another overtime.

Kalino's game winning shot came with 1:15 seconds left.

Gleason was high point man for the winners with 15 points.

Kokores, Vares Lead Puppies to 40-32 Win

The WHS Pup-pies defeated the Andrew Hill lightweights January 22 on the loser's court 40-32.

Top for the Pup-pies was Roger Kokores with 12; second was Robb Vares with 10.

As of Monday (Hatchet deadline), the Pup-pies were in a first place tie with James Lick. Both have 3-1 records.

THE HATCHET
